PRESS RELEASE

KBL epb recognized among Europe's best private banking groups

Luxembourg-headquartered group named one of Europe's 'Outstanding Private Banks' for fourth consecutive year

Luxembourg; October 15, 2018: For the fourth consecutive year, KBL European Private Bankers (KBL epb) has been named one of the best private banking groups in Europe.

Cited among the "Outstanding Private Banks in Europe" at the 28th Private Banker International Global Wealth Awards, which took place recently in Singapore, KBL epb continues to be recognized for the excellence of its operations.

"From London to Luxembourg and from Madrid to Munich, our 2,000 people share a commitment to proximity, performance and personalized service," said Group CEO Peter Vandekerckhove. "By sharing local knowledge and insight across our 50-city network, we're also able to provide broader pan-European perspective that benefits every client, no matter where they are based.

"As this award demonstrates," Vandekerckhove said, "it's that combination of proximity and perspective that continues to set the KBL epb group apart – helping us earn the recommendation of each client we have the opportunity to serve."

According to Private Banker International, recognition is provided to best-practice organizations that are setting new standards, including those that have done the most in the past year to advance and strengthen wealth management as an industry.

Key judging criteria include the ability of organizations to demonstrate a clear and unique strategy to grow their business, while strengthening and extending the reach of their brand. Following category nomination and shortlisting, award selection was made by Private Banker International's judging panel, comprising independent wealth management specialists and the magazine's editorial staff.
